GRADING FOR THE NEW TRACKS IN LOCAL YARDS

The Utah Construction company has started work on the extension of the yards of the Ogden Union Railway and Depot company which will increase the trackage about one-fifth and will greatly facilitate the handling of trains. The work involves an outlay of approximately $100,000.

The work includes the addition of sidings in the open space in the yards between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-eighth streets. All of the property there will be utilized for storage and transfer tracks. The main or "lead" track runs parallel to the passenger tracks at the union depot, but a short distance west of them. From this track many sidings will be built.

The Utah Construction company has established a camp in the south end of the yards and grading for the new tracks has been started.

TRACING CAUSE OF THE ATROCITIES OF THE GERMANS

That the teaching of the German philosophers during the past forty or fifty years had had a very large part in forming the German outlook on the world life and is one of the factors that must be understood in order to grasp the problems of the world war, is a fact that is well known. J. Challen Smith, who occupies the pulpit at the Congregational church tomorrow has given a great deal of time to the study of the writings of the German authorities and at the service Sunday evening will discuss the theme of "The Effect of German Philosophy."

At a time when the mind of all the world is trying to fathom the drive back of all the atrocities credited to the German nation, this opportunity of investigating a probable source will be worth while.

SUPT. HENRY JOHNSON FOR SCHOOL WORK IN WAR TIMES

A meeting was held this afternoon at the high school of teachers and principals of the city schools. Superintendent Henry Johnson was present and conducted the meeting. After the regular session, in which both principals and teachers met, a meeting of the principals alone was held. The work for the year was outlined and an address was given by Superintendent Johnson in which he called attention to the broad scope of education in modern times and a few of the problems which the teacher must meet in handling pupils.

Superintendent Johnson called attention to the enlarged scope of school work due to the present war and said that the attitude of the nations fighting clearly indicated the results of their training of their children and citizens. A country whose aim had been war and military acquisition was now considered by the whole world as being responsible for the war. The other countries were similarly described but a startling contrast was drawn between them and the belligerent forces responsible for the huge war.

"The United States has no selfish motive in this war," he said, "it is sending its thousands of young men to Europe to fight for universal democracy and personal liberty."

"The school should cling tenaciously to the fundamental for which it is established," he said. "More rather than less effort at the conservation of the child should be our aim. What is the use of making the world safe for democracy, if in doing so we allow the coming generation to be so neglected in mind and body as to be unable to take advantage of or enjoy its benefits? The nation even though at war has no more important duty than the conservation of the physical, mental and spiritual life of the children."

BOYS UNDER AGE ARE BEING ARRESTED IN POOL ROOMS

Following many complaints to the juvenile court that boys under the legal age of 18 years were going into pool rooms of the city, several arrests were made last night.

In the pool room of Joseph Harrop, 228 Washington, two boys, one 16 and the other 17 years of age, were arrested by Officer Frank Doyle and Probation Officer Shreve. The proprietor was also arrested. In police court this morning, he stated that he knew one of the boys was under age, but that he did not know the other one was. He was fined $5, with the warning that a second offense would mean a heavy penalty. The two boys were taken before Juvenile Judge Joshua Homer, who imposed a fine of $2 in each case.

About a dozen other minors will be sentenced some time next week. Their arrest followed a general round of the pool rooms of the city last night.

AUTOS MUST NOT PARK ON EAST SIDE OF WASHINGTON DURING PARADE TONIGHT

Tonight will see the staging of the biggest parade in the history of Ogden. If all plans of the Military Fashion Show and Patriotic Demonstration organizations materialize.

The parade will be a tribute to the boys who are going to war from Ogden and the state and will bring home to the citizens the fact that Ogden is ready to do her share of work and give her quota of men for the great cause. The exhibitions at Glenwood park after the parade will bring to the citizens vividly the meaning of war, even though carried out on a scale much smaller.

The big parade which is scheduled for 7 o'clock is the premier attraction of the early evening. The parade sections will form on Twenty-eighth street and Washington avenue at 6:30 p. m. each section in charge of a marshal and minor leaders. All will join as the huge body leaves for the parade and will move down Washington avenue as far as Twenty-first street. From there the regular units of the parade, such as military, Red Cross and Militant ladies will march to Glenwood to participate in the exhibitions there.

The west side of Washington avenue will be reserved for the parking of automobiles. All autos must back in square formation into the curb and must have tops down. No vehicles will be allowed to move on the avenue during the parade. No automobiles will be allowed on the eastern side of the avenue, as it is this side where the parade will march.

The services of several bands have been secured so there will be plenty of music. The Brigham City band, the Southern Pacific band, the Ogden City band and the Ladies' Band of Ogden will participate.

All of the proceeds of the big celebration will be turned over to the Battery for a battery fund. It was thought at first that part would be given to the Battery and part to the Fashion Show fund, but patriotic citizens of Ogden have suggested that the entire amount be turned over to the battery and this suggestion was unanimously accepted.

Lady Militants have been busy all day throughout the business district of the city selling tickets for the big exhibition at Glenwood park and have turned in a considerable amount of money. The big sales of course are expected at the park. Seating arrangements have been increased at the park so that approximately 6000 people can be accommodated and it is expected that fully this number will be on hand.

The boys of Battery B and the regimental band are expected to arrive in Ogden at 6 p. m. They will be fed at the depot where they arrive and will be formed there into order and marched to the starting point of the parade.

Special car service will be maintained, but it is expected that even then facilities will not be adequate to handle the immense crowds. It has been suggested because of this fact that all people living in the northern part of the city who wish to see the parade go to Jones' grove or some point near Glenwood and wait for it there. They will then have a better opportunity to get good seats at the park.

GEORGE LOWE ABBOTT LEAVES WITH THE NEXT CONTINGENT

Despite the fact that he had expressed a desire to go to the training camp with the next contingent of city recruits which leave on September 20, Louis Marangadakis, a local Greek, will not be given the privilege. The ranks of the unit are already filled and a place for Marangadakis could not be found. The Greek is an employee of the Dee hospital and told the draft board officials that he had resigned his position and desired to leave immediately for the training camp.

Because of the fact that Cyril Jenkins and Arthur Bennett Lee will not be taken on the second contingent, their places have been filled by two other men. George Lowe Abbott and Herbert Miles Currey will fill their places. Jenkins has just been released from the hospital and Lee could not be found when time came for sending him his notice to report for the second expedition.

A physical examination was scheduled today by the city board for James Mazarakos of Castle Rock, Wyoming, but he failed to show up. Mazarakos had his examination conducted to Ogden from the Wyoming city. It is thought that he is traveling on the railroad and probably could not make connections in time for the examination.

PRISONER IN JAIL MAY BE SENT TO THE U. S. ARMY

Word was sent from the draft board at Cleveland, Ohio, to the local county board today to give a physical examination to Max Shear, who is in the county jail. Shear was sentenced about six months ago for obtaining money under false pretenses, it being alleged that he had forged and cashed a check on the Reed hotel. His sentence will terminate on September 19. Shear's home address is 2493 East Thirty-ninth street, Cleveland, according to his registration certificate which was sent by the eastern board to the local board. He will be taken from the county jail and examined today. If physically qualified, he will be sent to Cleveland, according to the local exemption officials.

Shear was one of the ring leaders in the rioting at the county jail several weeks ago when prisoners protested to the officers by yelling, hammering bars and going on a hunger strike.

HEBER SCOWCROFT, JR. IS MADE A SERGEANT

Young Scowcroft has had military training which is now serving him to good purpose.

Three carloads of strike breakers from San Francisco were in Ogden a short time this morning, en route to Chicago and New York. They came from the coast city, where they were sent to take the place of the street car employees on strike. For some reason, the strike breakers struck, and were started back east, amid the plaudits of the men whose jobs they were sent to take. While here they were most orderly.

Police were at the depot to see there was no disturbance, but their services were not needed. There were 112 men in the party.

HOW KARL MARX THEORIES FAILED

Years ago Karl Marx developed a theory of reorganizing the basis of government that was believed by thousands in every land to be the basis of a new and better day for the toilers. The adherents of his views became a great power in the history making "International." Today, however, when the liberties of the common people are imperiled the followers of that same Marxian theory are not very united for their liberties of the class for whom it was supposed to be a power. This change is characteristic of the evolution of "liberty theories" in general. The teaching and life of Karl Marx and the interplay of the liberty as they obey one fixed law of nature, together with the effect they have on the religion of the day and the spiritual life of peoples will be Sunday evening theme in Presbyterian church.

The life of Karl Marx is one of the interesting tragedies of the past century. For decades he was law and bible to literally millions of Europe.

The Tasmanian Government has dammed a large lake and built a hydroelectric plant for light and power that will be distributed throughout the State.
